1 FOREWORD

This document lists the income types used on the Incomes Register's benefits payment reports (BenefitTransactionCode). The income types are grouped according to how they are displayed in the Incomes Register's e-service in order to make its use easier. The income types are linked to several data processing rules itemised in the "Data delivery – Schemas – Benefits payment reports" content description. Each processing rule dependent on the value of Income type code refers to a control rule presented in a separate column in this codeset. The control rule either applies to the income type ("Yes") or not ("No"). The control rules of the income types with short descriptions are as follows:

- Entry of Taxability of benefit information prevented. More detailed information on the taxability of the income type cannot be entered for the deductible items (Section 2.20) or incomes that are tax-exempt in income taxation and not subject reporting data according to section 28 a of the act on inheritance and gift tax (perintö- ja lahjaverolaki 378/1940). Additionally, if the tax treatment of the income type is unambiguous, entry of the Taxability of benefit information is prevented. This is the case when, for example, the income is earned income to its recipient without exception.
- Taxability of benefit information mandatory. A specifier on the tax treatment of the income type must be entered for an income type that is not unambiguously taxable or tax-exempt, but always needs a comment on the more specific tax treatment from the payer. The mandatory status also applies to payments covered by the above-mentioned reporting as per the act on inheritance and gift tax.
- Benefit unit mandatory. Information on the benefit unit and the number of units must be entered for an income type if it has previously been subject to the annual report of unemployment benefits payment days (VSKORVPV data flow) that will be replaced by the Incomes Register in 2021. Information may also be required for individual income types on other grounds.
- Grounds for pension paid to a non-resident taxpayer information is mandatory for a non-resident taxpayer. The control rule ("Yes") applies to taxable pensions. When the pensioner is a non-resident taxpayer, the payer must report specifying information on the nature of the work from which the pension was accrued or on other grounds. This additional information is used as the basis of taxation and in international data exchange.
